KOREAN ART OF SELF DEFENCE

It should be needless to draw everyone's attention to the importance of this event in that it continues to provide the BUTF with qualified officials year after year, while at the same time providing valuable revision time for existing ones, which is crucial to the smooth running and success of all our Championships.

Remember as always, no charge is made for this course

Black Belt Training Session

As mentioned in an earlier paragraph, this session will conclude at 1900 hrs. All forms with fees should be submitted as with the Umpires Course list by Friday 17th June

B.U.T.F. Cup

The day's program will commence on Saturday the 2nd July at 1130 hrs. and as such all Instructors should ensure that students arrive in time. The venue is the same as previous years with all details available on the official poster nearer the event or on the BUTF website. Instructors are reminded that all forms/fees should be in Head Office by Friday the 24th June and as is BUTF policy, late entries will be rejected.
